

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Unless otherwise provided for in this schedule, all exhibits must be entered in the name of owners who shall, if called upon, make statutory declaration as to ownership, and no exhibit may be entered by or in the name of any person currently disqualified by any recognized Agricultural Society.

ENTRIES

2. ALL ENTRIES AT OFFICE - NO REFUNDS.
Entries must be made with the Secretary or with any person appointed by the Committee as indicated in this Schedule.
3. The Society reserves the right to refuse or to cancel any entry without giving any reason for so doing and no claim shall be made against the Society for any reason for any such refusal or cancellation.
4. The Society reserves the right of adjudication on any questionable entry, or to any such point not provided for in the regulations of the Society, and of making any alterations that may be deemed necessary.
5. Any exhibitor or their agent defaulting in payment of any entry fee in any Section shall be reported to the Cumberland Group of Agricultural Societies and is liable to be debarred from competing in any other Agricultural Show within the Cumberland Group.
6. Exhibitors, if called upon by the stewards, must prove the correctness of their entries.

RESPONSIBILITY

7. The Society will not be responsible for any accidents that may be caused through or by any exhibit, and it shall be a condition of each entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless, and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising from such accident.
8. The Society will not, under any circumstance, hold itself responsible for any loss or mis-delivery of exhibits of the Society's exhibition, or for any damage thereof.
9. The signing of the certificate of entry of any animal will be taken as a guarantee that the animal specified is free from all disease. In case of infectious disease being spread through or by any exhibit, the exhibitor shall be held responsible. The Committee may refuse to admit to the ground any exhibit that appears to be diseased or dangerous, and may compel the exhibitor to remove such exhibit.
10. The Society will not hold itself responsible for the prizes, further than proportionate to the extent of the funds that are available for that purpose; nor will it indemnify exhibitors for any article that may be lost, stolen or destroyed during the Show.

11. Any person who desires to enter a protest against any exhibitor shall lodge a protest in writing within one hour of the announcement of the Judge's decision. The protest shall set out in detail the circumstances relied upon by such person and shall be given to or left at the office of the Secretary, accompanied by a fee of $50 which shall be forfeited to the Society should the protest be deemed frivolous.

OBJECTIONABLE CONDUCT

12. Any person who, in the opinion of the Society or any of its officers, shall cause annoyance by loud or unseemly comment upon the decision of the Judge, or of any official on duty on or about the judging ring, and any person, whose conduct shall contravene the Society's rules, regulations or by-laws, and any person who may, in the opinion of the Society or any of its officials, by guilty of unseemly, offensive or insulting behavior, may be expelled from the Showground and shall, upon being requested to do so by the Secretary or a Steward or by any other official of the Society, forthwith vacate and leave the Showground or such part thereof as directed.
13. If the Committee be satisfied that any person has, by their conduct, willfully, infringed the Society's rules, regulations or by-laws, the Committee may prohibit such person from exhibiting or from competing in any section or class of the Show or at any future Show.

JUDGING

14. The Committee reserves the right to substitute a Judge when deemed necessary.
15. If a Judge shall consider that any exhibit does not possess sufficient merit to deserve an award, no award shall be made.
